

11 Hore Street Brownsville NSW

2  1

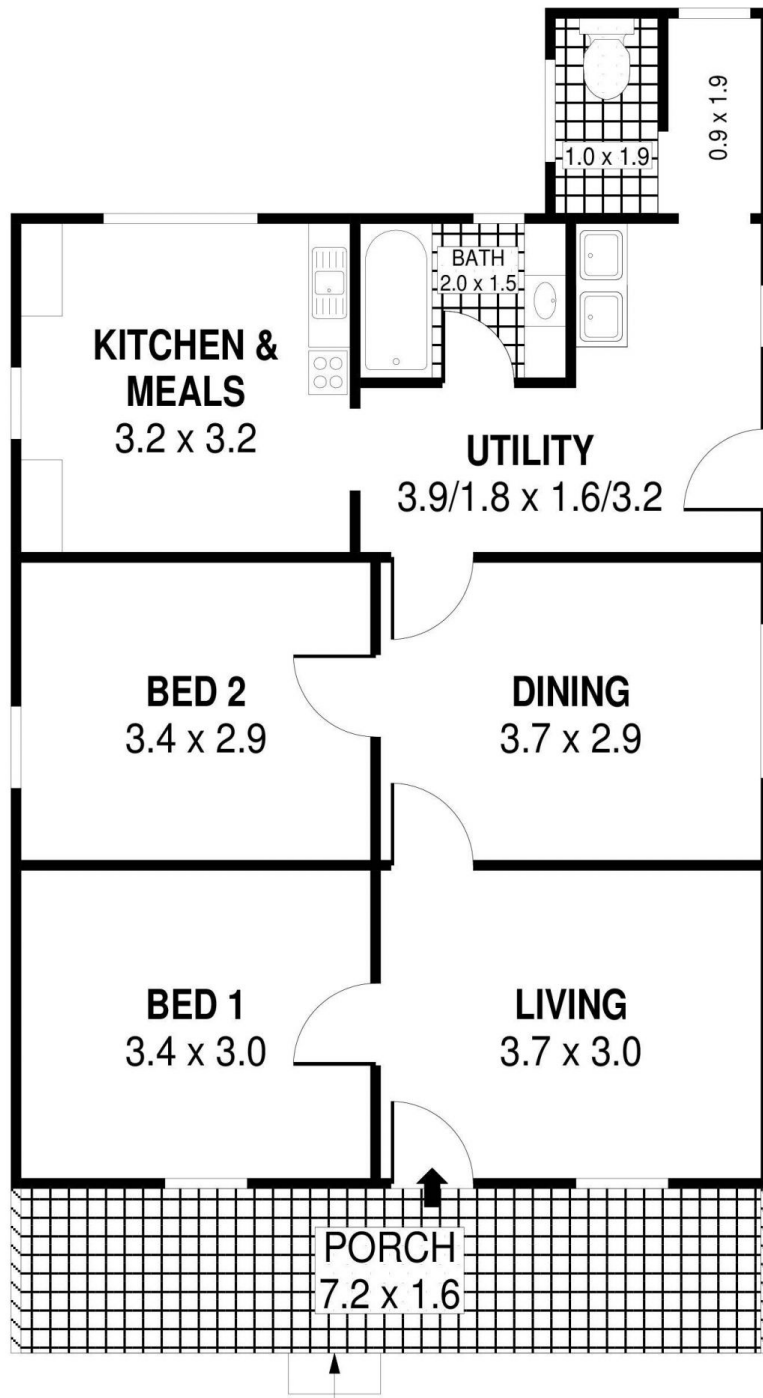

A unique property which is certainly from a bygone era. Situated in one of the original locations in the area this property provides an insight into what properties were like at that time. The property consists of a formal lounge room and a separate dining room with a neat kitchen and a utility area. There are 2 large bedrooms with a bathroom and separate toilet. Side access is available to the rear yard with ample room to build a garage and/or workshop subject to normal approvals. The local neighbourhood shops and public transport are just minutes away with easy access available to the Princes motorway. Whilst the property is original in style and presentation overall it does provide a unique and affordable opportunity to enter the real estate market.
