what you will love?
potential | convenient | invest | location

Brimming with potential and located only minutes from Wollongong CBD and the University is this three-bedroom red brick apartment that is private and light-filled throughout. An excellent villa alternative, the kitchen has been updated to include stone benches yet there's plenty of potential to renovate and modernise. Surrounded by a large common yard that wraps around the property, this one is not to be missed.

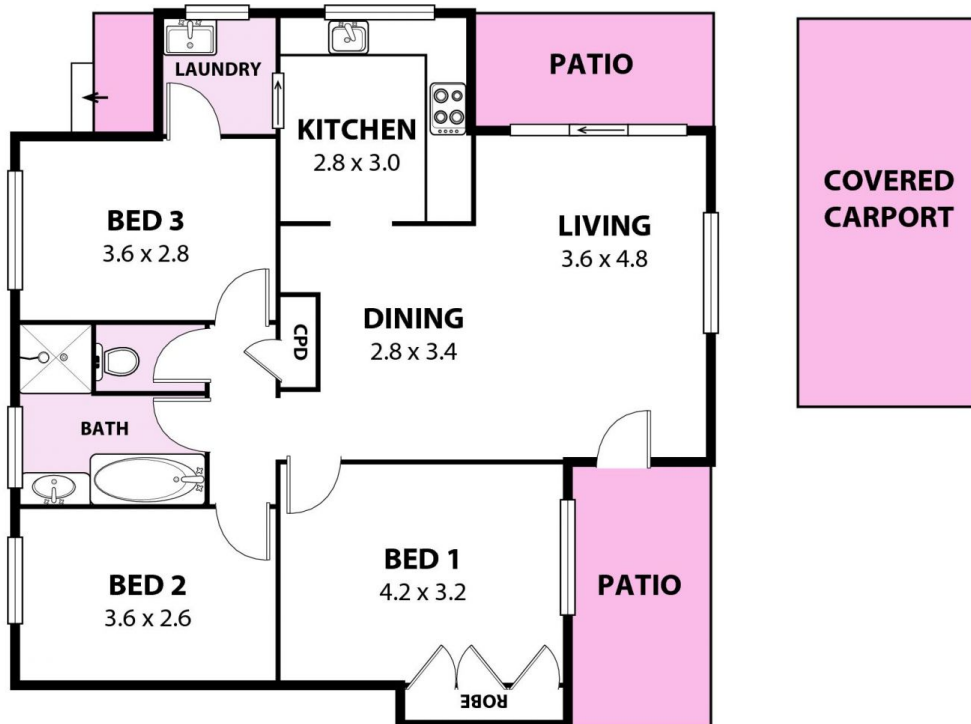

+ light filled living areas, updated kitchen
+ well-appointed bedrooms, practical layout
